

Ambassadors for Recovery

OUR STORIES HAVE POWER

Southern Bucks Recovery Community Center
1286 Veterans Highway, Suite D6, Bristol, PA 19007

Share Your Story:

The Southern Bucks Recovery Community Center (SBRCC) in Bristol, PA is a division of PRO-ACT, a grassroots advocacy and recovery support initiative of The Council of Southeast Pennsylvania. The Our Stories Have Power Training is designed by Faces & Voices of Recovery. PRO-ACT will be presenting this free training to show the importance of messaging.

Tuesday March 20th. 5:00-7:00 PM

For more information, please contact:

Jim Kowalski, Volunteer Coordinator

215-788-3738 ext. 110

Or

Brian Kaye, Certified Recovery Specialist

215-788-3738 ext. 112

- * Learn about messaging
- * Learn how to tell your recovery story to your friends and family
- * Learn how to use recovery messages in all parts of your life, including representing the organized recovery community in the media and other public places
- * Expand opportunities for recovery
- * Mobilize and organize the recovery community to advocate for own rights and needs
- * Break down discriminatory barriers
- * Build our national recovery advocacy movement
- * Achieve a just response to addiction as a health crisis

Our Stories Have Power

Recovery Community Messaging Training

This project is funded by the Bucks County Drug & Alcohol Commission, Inc. and the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Association.

