Bucks County Department of Health Requirements for Outdoor Seating at Food Facilities

Municipalities must approve the plans for temporary structures and any add on lighting and heating.

Reservations should be required to help manage crowding and to cancel if bad weather is forecast.

All tables and chairs must be socially distanced by a minimum of 6 feet as measured from the backs of chairs from one table to the backs of chairs at the next closest table.

A minimum of 2 fully opened flaps for ventilation on opposing walls must be up regardless of weather conditions if a tent is used.

Portable toilets are not allowed.

Waiters and Waitresses must be masked or using a face shield and must be gloved or using hand sanitizer.

All condiments must be single service.

Questions on outdoor liquor sales must be directed to the LCB.

Tables and chairs must be sanitized after each use.

Consideration for unimpeded pedestrian traffic must be evaluated.

Alcohol may only be served as part of a meal order.
