*Local Interagency Coordinating Council
of Bucks County

2019-2020 Workshop Schedule – Revised

For families of children 0-5,
Bucks County Child Care Providers,
Local Business and Community Members

*The Local Interagency Coordinating Council (LIACC) is mandated by federal and state legislation: IDEA Parts B & C; PA Chapter 14 Regulations

Our mission:

- To promote community linkages with existing resources for children with special needs, their families & caregivers.
- To provide training, enhance communication, promote community awareness, explore & help develop new models of service, & actively advocate ensuring the best possible Early Intervention system for Bucks County's children, families and caregivers.

Our objectives:

- Increase family/caregiver involvement in community Early Intervention.
- Further develop, review, and enhance local practices in accordance with recognized best practices & state and federal law.
- Identify local community needs & concerns and work to find solutions.

Join us!

Planning for Transitions

Thursday, October 10, 2019

Come out to meet other families while learning about resources and information helpful to families and caregivers when planning for transitions.

Learn about Parent to Parent of PA, a program that connects families with other families to provide support and information, and PA Family Network, assisting families/caregivers to find information, supports and resources to live an Everyday Life.

Early Intervention staff will provide families with information about transition to EI preschool and/or to Kindergarten.

Social Emotional Development & Self-Regulation

Tuesday, April 21, 2020 (revised)

Join our presenter Lori Borman, M. Ed., to learn more about self-regulation and ways to promote our children's social competence skills to impact learning.

Childcare provided for both workshops!

All meetings & workshops are at the Bucks IU,
705 N. Shady Retreat Rd Doylestown, PA
