

BUCKS COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

June 3, 2009

The Regular Meeting of the Bucks County Board of Commissioners was held at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, June 3, 2009, at the Upper Southampton Fire Company, 925 Street Road, Southampton, PA. In attendance were Commissioner Charles H. Martin, Chairman, Commissioner James F. Cawley and Commissioner Diane M. Ellis-Marseglia. Commissioner Martin opened the meeting with a moment of silence, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance.

PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT

Commissioner Martin announced that the meeting will be recorded to allow audio playback on the County's website.

INTRODUCTIONS

Chairman Martin congratulated the Fire Company on their 100th anniversary.

Mr. Martin recognized county officials who were present: Patricia Bachtle, Prothonotary, Ed Gudknecht, Recorder of Deeds, and Mary Smithson, Clerk of Courts.

He also noted the presence of Pat Feebling on behalf of Senator Greenleaf's office, Nathaniel Binns on behalf of Congressman Murphy's office, Warrington Township Supervisor Rebecca Kiefer, Upper Southampton Township Manager Joe Golden, and Upper Southampton Township Supervisors Marguerite Genesio, Chairperson, Keith Froggatt, Lola Biuckians and Walter Stevens. Mr. Stevens welcomed everyone and spoke about the important role of volunteer firefighters in the community and how they make Southampton a nice place to live.

PROCLAMATIONS

The Commissioners proclaimed June 7-14, 2009 as "WEIGHTS AND MEASURES WEEK" throughout the County of Bucks and recognized that fairness in the marketplace is a cornerstone of economic health for businesses and consumers alike. They encouraged consumers to ensure they receive the quantity for which they pay, and that businesses sell the quantity they advertise. Mike Bannon, Director, accepted alongside Consumer Protection staff, who he thanked for their hard work and noted they conducted an impressive 10,000 inspections last year. Commissioner Martin noted that Consumer Protection Office Manager Patricia Medd will be retiring in the near future and wished her well.

The Commissioners proclaimed 2009 as "SOUTHAMPTON FIRE COMPANY #1 – 100TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION" throughout Bucks County. They recognized the company's rich history and commended all past and present members for their volunteerism and bravery. President Joe Reaney and Chief Glenn McKenney accepted, spoke of their pride in the organization, and stated that 100 years of history was made possible by the support of volunteers, the government and surrounding communities.

The Commissioners proclaimed June 2009 as "GRADUATE MONTH" throughout Bucks County and applauded Bucks for Kids (B4K) for its support of adolescents within the Bucks County foster care system. B4K Corporate Secretary and founder Nancy Larkin Taylor thanked the Commissioners for their support. Frank Burstein, Chairperson, introduced Children & Youth staff members and B4K volunteers and read the names of 2009 scholarship recipients. Nefetari Sloan, a scholarship recipient, thanked Bucks 4 Kids, the Commissioners, and the Children & Youth on behalf of all the scholarship recipients for making higher education possible.

PUBLIC COMMENT – Agenda Items

None.

Ms. Ellis-Marseglia suggested that public comment on agenda items be taken after the agenda is read aloud by the Solicitor. Chairman Martin did not object and stated that public comment is encouraged.

OLD BUSINESS

Upon motion of Mr. Cawley, seconded by Ms. Ellis-Marseglia, with the vote being 3-0, the Minutes of the Regular Meetings of May 6, 2009 and May 20, 2009, were approved.

AND the proper officers are authorized to execute all documents necessary to carry this Resolution into effect.

DISCUSSION – Agenda Items

Rich Harvey, Agricultural Land Preservation, spoke on item 1a & b and introduced Mr. Eastburn, who appeared on behalf of the Wicens. He thanked the County and spoke about the hardworking Wicen family and their farm.

Dick Manna, Quality Assurance, spoke on items 4a & b.

Joe Pizzo, Redevelopment Authority Solicitor, spoke at length on item 4c and answered a range of questions posed by the Commissioners regarding the intent and provisions of the agreement, environmental challenges of the land and the role of the RDA in the project. The Board deliberated at length, and Mr. Cawley and Ms. Ellis-Marseglia voiced their support for the agreement, with Ms. Ellis-Marseglia requesting a weekly update on its status.

Joe Funk, Health & Human Services, spoke on items 2a, 3b, 3f, 11a, 11b, 11c. Pertaining to item 3a, it was agreed to remove the word “dependency” from the resolution.

Lynn Bush, Planning Commission, spoke on item 5a and explained the criteria and the process used to prioritize applicants and projects. Additional input was provided by Vitor Vicente, Community & Business Development. The Board deliberated at length, and Ms. Ellis-Marseglia suggested the list be amended to include a proposed court counseling program.

David Sanko, Chief Operating Officer, spoke on item 9e in response to Ms. Ellis-Marseglia’s comments.

NEW BUSINESS

Ms. Ellis-Marseglia motioned to table item 9e, but the motion failed for lack of a second.

After a lengthy discussion involving Joe Pizzo, Esq., Ms. Ellis-Marseglia made a motion to table item 4c, which was seconded by Mr. Cawley, and with the vote being 3-0, item 4c was TABLED.

Upon motion of Mr. Cawley, seconded by Mr. Martin, and opposed by Ms. Ellis-Marseglia, with the vote being 2-1-0, it was approved that if necessary to reduce any project’s funding pertaining to item 5a, the deduction shall be made from the funding awarded to Bucks County for accessibility improvements to county facilities.

Upon motion of Mr. Cawley, seconded by Mr. Martin, with the vote being 3-0, the following Resolution was approved with the exception of items 5a and 9e, which Ms. Ellis-Marseglia opposed but were approved with the vote being 2-1-0.

MISCELLANEOUS

David M. Sanko, Chief Operating Officer, reported on the following matters:

The state legislature returned to session on Monday with the intent of finalizing the budget. Projections show the current shortfall to be $3.2 billion. Yesterday, the governor announced another $400-500 million will be trimmed from the initial budget proposal. House Appropriations Committee Chairman Dwight Evans has been holding hearings on the budget, and is planning to schedule a vote.

County staff is continuing to work to obtain as much stimulus funding as possible, and is continuing to monitor the various appropriations requests made for the 2010 federal budget through Congressman Murphy and the Senators. Congressman Murphy has indicated that he is submitting an inoperability project for the county for fire police and EMS mobile data terminal projects for $1 million.

The Commissioners commented on the following matters:

In response to Ms. Ellis-Marseglia’s question, Mr. Sanko confirmed that a RFQ has been released to hire a consultant for the narrowbanding project.

Ms. Ellis-Marseglia asked for an update on an insurance RFP, and Mr. Sanko responded. She also asked about the status of a report from the Controller, and the Board directed that it shall be offered in the near future.

Ms. Ellis-Marseglia asked for an update on the Responsible Contractor group, and Mr. Cawley reported that the group will be submitting a report in the near future, which was confirmed by Brian Hessenthaler.

Ms. Ellis-Marseglia asked about the whereabouts of a memorial for deceased Corrections Officers. Mr. Sanko responded that the memorial has been located, and that discussions will take place to re-design the memorial so it may be placed indoors.

Mr. Martin spoke about a ceremony was held yesterday to honor of the beginning of the “Gardens at the Manor” project at Neshaminy Manor.

APPOINTMENTS

Ms. Ellis-Marseglia made a motion to appoint Mr. Jeffrey Slemrod to the Library Board, but the motion failed for lack of a second.

The Board discussed the motion as it relates to a vacancy on the board, and Ms. Ellis-Marseglia queried about the existence of an attendance policy for members of the Library Board.

PUBLIC COMMENT – All Items

Madeline Rawley, a Doylestown resident, spoke about voting issues and requested a machine incident report from the Primary Election. She asked about the creation of a post-election evaluation committee, and Mr. Cawley responded that he would discuss it with the Director of the Board of Elections.

Bradley Kirsch, a Warminster resident, spoke about his touching experience while viewing the Hometown Heroes banner display on the grounds of the courthouse. He also spoke about encouraging volunteerism in politics, and in response, Commissioner Martin suggested that he put his ideas in writing and send them to the county for further review.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The next public meeting of the Bucks County Commissioners will be held at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, June 17, 2009, at the Bucks County Public Safety Training Center, 1760 S. Easton Road, Room 106, Doylestown, PA.

ADJOURNMENT

Upon motion of Mr. Cawley, seconded by Ms. Ellis-Marseglia, with the vote being 3-0, the meeting was adjourned.
